LIBRARY COMMISSIONERS' REPORT,

1862.

---

The Commissioners of the Ohio State Library respectfully submit to the Honorable the Legislature of the State of Ohio, their Seventeenth Annual Report.

The condition of the Library on the 15th of November, 1861, was as follows :

In the General Department .....	20,688
In the Law " .....	3,386
Total .....	24,074

The accessions since that time have been :

To the General Department .....	1,245
To the Law " .....	81
Total accessions .....	1,326

This increase was obtained :

By Purchase .....	395
" Donations .....	686
" Exchanges .....	245
Total .....	1,326

The whole number of volumes in the General Library and Law Department on the 15th November, 1862, is :

In the General Department .....	21,933
In the Law " .....	3,467
Total .....	25,400

The entire cost of the 395 volumes purchased, was :

From the appropriated funds of the General and Law Department ....	$546 44
From the Ohio Reports fund .....	481 25
Average cost of 395 volumes is $2 60 .....	$1,027 69

The additions from 1853 to 1862, inclusive, are:

Whole number of books in 1853.....	13 640
Accessions in 1854 and 1855.....	3,454
“ 1856 .....	1,029
“ 1857 .....	908
“ 1858 .....	697
“ 1859 .....	1,661
“ 1860 .....	1,404
“ 1861 .....	1,281
“ 1862 .....	1,326

Whole number registered, Nov. 15, 1862.....	25,400
---	--------

The appropriation for the Library for the year 1862 was:

For the purchase of books, magazines and papers.....	$300 00
On hand, and available by draft, Nov. 15, 1861.....	15 01
Total.....	$315 01
Expended for books and periodicals.....	313 51
Balance subject to draft, Nov. 15, 1862.....	$1 50

CONTINGENT FUND.

On hand, and subject to draft, Nov. 15, 1861.....	$163 69
Expended of this balance, to February 26, 1862....	163 30
Balance unexpended, Nov. 15, 1862.....	39

The account of the fund for contingent expenses, as specifically appropriated, here ceased, leaving a balance of 39 cents.

The expenditures of the Library from February 26th to Nov. 15, 1862, and classed as contingent, have been paid out of the fund for such purposes in the hands of the Auditor, upon bills approved by the Librarian, to the amount of $193 52.

The contingent expenses of the Library would then be:

From Nov. 15, 1861, to February 26, 1862.....	$163 30
From February 26 to Nov. 15, 1862.....	193 52
Contingent expenses for the year 1862.....	$356 82

LAW LIBRARY.

Remaining on hand, and subject to draft, Nov. 15, 1861.....	$607 30
Expended during the year.....	232 93
Balance unexpended, Nov. 15, 1862.....	$374 37

No appropriation was deemed necessary for the Law Department for 1862, as a large portion of the previous year's was not expended at the last Report of the Library, and a balance, as above stated, is subject to draft at the close of this year. It will remain for the General Assembly to determine the amount necessary in an appropriation for the year 1863.

OHIO REPORTS FUND.

Balance of Fund on hand, Nov. 15, 1861.....	$39 15
Value of Reports disposed of during the year.....	819 05
		<hr/> $858 20
Of this sum, there was expended for the exchange of books, as accessions to the Library.....	$481 25
Applied to the credit of a difference in exchanges at the close of last year .....	219 39
		<hr/> 700 64
Balance of Ohio Reports sold.....	$157 56
This balance consists in an amount :
Due by Robt. Clarke & Co., payable in the exchange of books.	$126 02
“ Follett, Foster & Co., on exchange of Ohio Reports.	4 94
“ C. H. Parsons, (not collectable).....	25 20
“ Walter Thrall, “ .....	1 40
		<hr/> $157 56 $157 56

It will be observed from the reports of the Commissioners the last four years, that a considerable fund was obtained from the sale of Ohio Reports. This can hardly be expected to continue. As the demand for these Reports diminish, so will the revenue. As a source of income to the Library, its absence will be very sensibly noticed, especially when the annual appropriations are curtailed to a minimum that precludes any accessions creditable to the Library, or those who desire to see it regularly increase from a permanent and liberal fund.

A comparison of the appropriations for the several years since 1853, may be seen in the following view :

Appropriations from 1853 to 1862, inclusive.

1853.....	$1,000
1854.....	2,000
1855.....	2,000
1857.....	3,850
1858.....	700
1859.....	2,550
1860.....	2,100
1861.....	1,600
1862 (besides contingent expenses, $193 52).....	300

The aggregate of expenditure for the year closing with this report, may be stated as follows :

From the appropriation of 1862, and balance on hand from 1862....	$313 51
From the Law Department .....	232 93
From the disposition of Ohio Reports.....	692 16
From the amount for binding books .....	264 54
From the consumption of the appropriated contingent fund.....	163 30
From the contingent expenses arising since the closing of contingent account .....	193 52

Total expenditure from November, 1861, to November, 1862.. $1,859 96

We hope your Honorable Body may find it consistent with a due regard to public economy to make a larger appropriation for the year 1863. More than one-half of the additions accompanying this report have been presented by literary institutions or individuals. The Commissioners of the Library took much pleasure in acknowledging especially the splendid gift of four hundred volumes received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, selected from their own publications. Also, from Mr. J. J. Barclay, of Philadelphia, a large number of important works and documents. A very large number of speeches in both branches of Congress will be found reported. These speeches are mostly upon the great interests in which our country is now involved, and are of much importance.

An addition to the free list of newspapers has been obtained from the publishers of six daily and one weekly papers, viz: The Philadelphia Inquirer, Baltimore Clipper, New Haven Palladium, Dayton Journal, Toledo Blade and Toledo Commercial, as daily papers, and the Lutheran and Missionary of Philadelphia, a weekly. To these, as well as to others who have been favoring us with their daily and weekly papers, and whose names will be found elsewhere in this report, we make due acknowledgments.

An interesting letter was lately received from Mr. Henry Stevens, of London, in reply to one from Mr. Coggeshall, making inquiry as to the "proper course to be taken, with the expense attending the effort, to obtain a set of the 'English Patents.'" We deem it proper to furnish you an extract, leaving the subject for the consideration of the present, or some future Legislature. It is, at all events, too important to be entirely dismissed:

"As to the English Patents I can give you any information you may require, being well acquainted with Mr. Woodcroft, the Superintendent, and receiving weekly the specifications for the New York State Library, the Astor Library, and the U. S. Patent Office. There are several sets in the United States, but there is no one in the West. The work is now so bulky and so costly, that it is not possible that the Commissioners of Patents could present another set to the United States, unless the Library receiving it should be somewhere in the West, and the books be deposited for public use. They would also insist that the work should be well arranged, and substantially bound. The cost of paper and print of each set is about ten thousand dollars ($10,000), and the three sets that have been bound have cost for binding about seven thousand dollars ($7,000). You see a present of this kind after the Oriental fashion becomes very expensive. I do not think the vast bulk of printed matter, with plates, on soft paper, would be of any use to you unbound.

"If then you think it best to apply for a set, and will promise on receiving it to hold it for public use, and keep it in order, and well protected, no doubt your application will be granted. The best way then would be for the Governor or Secretary of State to write an official application to 'The Commissioner of Patents, B Woodcroft, Esq., Superintendent of Great Seal Patent Office, Southampton Buildings, London.' It would be well also if this letter could be forwarded to Mr. Woodcroft with a note from Mr. Adams, the American Minister here, pressing the request. You should also state the name of your Agent in London to receive and receipt for your Elephant when you have won him. They do not send out the books, but they must be called for on the day named, and the continuations must be brought away every Monday morning. If you have no better agent to name, you may name me, as I already fetch away three sets every Monday, and could easily add the fourth.

"If you get your set bound, you could not do better than have it done to the pattern of that in the U. S. Patent Office and Astor Library, which are the same as the set in the Great Seal Patent Office here. You need not spend all your money at once, but the binding may be spread over three, four or five years. No doubt the work could be done here very much cheaper than in the United States. The chief item of the expense is in the mounting of the drawings on thin white calico, and to give you some faint idea of this, I will mention that it will take about 25,000 yards to mount the plates of a single set.

"Respectfully yours, etc.,

"HENRY STEVENS."

The number of Ohio Reports on hand, November 15, 1862, of both series, is 5,278 volumes, viz:

INDEBTEDNESS.

The Library is owing the following persons :

January 2, 1862.	To Randall & Aston for books.....	24 82
March 21, 1862.	To Robert Clarke & Co. for balance on open account.....	106 76
Feb. 22, 1862.	To Jos. H. Riley for law books.....	10 00
October 1, 1861.	To Wm. T. Coggeshall for books.....	100 75
		$242 33

We would respectfully call the attention of the Legislature to the over-crowded state of the shelving in the Library Hall. The additions to that part of the Library can no longer find room, but must be forced in, or laid loosely on top of the cases ; thus exposing them to injury, or separating them from their proper classification. The attention of the Legislature has been called to this necessity in the several last reports, but it has now become so urgent that we invite an examination into the matter.

For want of space, the donation from the Presbyterian Church, although registered, must remain in the box in which they were received. We deem this valuable gift to the Library worthy of a separate and suitable case to contain them entire, as they are all of one class. The same complaint holds good in the room containing the bound volumes of newspapers, and the room above it used for storing Ohio Reports, besides many hundred volumes of Congressional matter, much of which has to be kept in their original boxes.

Accompanying this Report will be found a list of works received by donation and in exchange the past year, with a list of newspapers sent free to the Library.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

DAVID TOD, Governor,

W. S. KENNON, Secretary of State,

S. G. HARBAUGH, Librarian,
