CONTINGENT EXPENSES.

The whole amount expended during the year, and classed as contingent expenses, is $265.41.

BINDING.

The amount paid N. W. Lefavor for binding done for the Library since Nov. 15, 1862, was	$217 19
Also, paid him for binding previously done (an unsettled account)	95 05
	<hr/> $312 24

SHELVING.

Of the two hundred dollars appropriated for additional shelving to the Library, $179.65 was expended in changing the position, and repainting and varnishing the large cases which had their places against the walls; and these spaces are now occupied with part of the shelving desired in the Library, whilst other parts were also provided with shelves for books. A neat case with glass inclosure has been made, out of this fund, to contain the large and valuable present from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. The whole has added much to the appearance of the Library Rooms. A balance of $20.35 remains on hand, to be used as occasion requires for some further shelving.

The number of Ohio Reports on hand, of both series, Nov. 15, 1863, is 4597 volumes.

Ohio Reports—First Series.		Ohio State Reports—Second Series.
Vol. 11	53	Vol. 1	1220
" 12	126	" 2	92
" 13	161	" 8	251
" 14	109	" 4	30
" 15	223	" 5	55
" 16	197	" 6	55
" 17	202	" 7	214
" 18	234	" 8	63
" 19	190	" 9	205
" 20	167	" 10	212
		" 11	213
		" 12	197
		" 13	96
Vols.-----1662		Vols.-----2935

The above statement shows a redundant supply of some numbers of both series, from which at least one half might be disposed of. There is, however, not much probability that a sale of any more will be effected for some years, as the only house in the trade is at present well supplied. The only source of means by which the Library has been furnished for the purchase of books for some years was the disposal of Ohio Reports. This can be no longer relied upon, and it is hoped your Honorable Body will, during its present session, make a liberal appropriation for the purchase of books, beside what is required to pay the Magazines and Newspapers. It is important these be received regularly, otherwise the sets and volumes would be imperfect, and less valuable for reference and reading.

The expenditures of the year which closes with this Report were:

From the appropriation of 1863, for Magazines, Newspapers, and a few books	$324 65
From the fund of the Law Department	42 45
From the exchange of Ohio Reports for books	1192 37
For contingent expenses	265 41
For binding books, periodicals and newspapers	217 19
For shelving and repairing cases for books	179 65
	<hr/> $2221 72

Beside the above sum, which pertains solely to the year closing Nov. 15, 1863, sundry other bills, contracted in 1861, were also paid, to the amount of $331.98.

There are no debts due by the Library at this time. A list of publications received by donation, and in exchange, with a continuance of Newspapers sent free to the Library, accompanies this Report.

All being respectfully submitted,

DAVID TOD, Governor,

W. W. ARMSTRONG, Sec'y of State,

S. G. HARBAUGH, Librarian,

Commissioners of Ohio State Library.
