LIBRARY COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.

To the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

When the Thirteenth Annual Report of the Commissioners of the State Library was rendered, November 15th, 1858, the number of volumes registered was 19,728, of which 2,578 were in the Law Department. It was then stated that these figures did not convey a correct idea of the number of volumes in the Library, because they included all pamphlets bound together, and all books worn out, lost or stolen. The real number was estimated at 18,000, which was not too high. The register number November 15th, 1859, was 21,389. The number of volumes added the past year was therefore 1,661, of which 967 were purchased, 51 donated, and 643 received by exchange. Of the volumes purchased, the Law Library received 292, of those sent in exchange 61, making the number of volumes added to the Law Library in 1859, 353. In the Law Department there are now 2,931 volumes.

The appropriations for the Library for 1859 were:

January 11th, for purchase of books and periodicals and for binding.....	$300 00

To general department.....	$157 97
To law department.....	719 35
To contingent fund.....	139 65
	1,016 97

To the amount expended from appropriations should be added fund arising from the sale of Ohio Reports 1,233 29

Total expenditures for State Library, 1859..... 4,227 13

The objects of these expenditures were :

For books magazines and newspapers.....	2,214 34
For binding and stamping.....	1,406 97
For postage and other contingent expenses.....	235 32
For assistant and porter.....	370 50
Total.....	4,227 13

The appropriation of $1,000, April 5, 1859, for the law department, according to the terms in which it is made, can only be expended upon the warrant of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. All the purchases thus far made, have been under rules established by the Library Commissioners, from catalogues approved by the Judges of that Court.

The Binding, with the exception of $504 81, has been paid for by the sale of Ohio Reports, and of the amount paid for books $235 97 were obtained in the same way.

A detailed statement of all the accounts of the Library, a catalogue of all donations and exchanges, together with the laws and resolutions now in force respecting it, a list of its officers and a record of its expenses up to 1860, are published herewith, in an Appendix, to which, an Index is given on its last page.

In our Report, for 1858, it was stated that an exchange had been opened with Astor Library and that Dr. J. G. Cogswell, the Librarian, had sent a list of books which he designed to return for Ohio Laws, Documents and Reports. Six cases of books were received from the Astor Library a few days since. They contained 275 Volumes, comprising works of Science, Biography, Natural History and Travels, together with State Papers and Reports to the English Parliament on Literature, Commerce, Agriculture and Mechanical pursuits, on Slavery in the West India Islands, and on the social, religious and political condition of British India. These books were valued by Dr. Cogswell, at $172.

It was stated also in the Thirteenth Report, that endeavors had been made to re-open an exchange with France. In 1850 a package of valuable books was received from M. Vattermare, founder of the system of International Exchanges, since which time Ohio has derived no advantage from that system. In December, 1858, M. Vattermare was notified, that a box containing the Laws, Documents and Reports of Ohio, published since the second Constitution was adopted, had been forwarded to the Smithsonian Institute for the Public Library of Paris. Thereupon he sent, in care of the Governor of Ohio, 139 Volumes and 43 Pamphlets, which were received in good order and deposited in the Library. They consist of handsomely illustrated works on Agriculture, Stock raising, Silk Culture, Mechanics, Navigation, Railroads, Education, History, Biography and Belles Lettres. They were all in paper covers, and have been appropriately bound and stamped—International Exchange, Ohio State Library.

We trust that the annual exchange of Laws, Documents and Reports between Ohio and France will hereafter be uninterrupted.

For the purpose of further promoting exchanges in Europe, a box of Laws and Documents, was sent, in May last, to England, in care of Charles B. Norton, of New York, who visited Europe for bibliographical research. No report has yet been received from Mr. Norton, but good results are anticipated from his distribution of the books entrusted to him.

In April, 1858, Rev. James G. Kerr, a native of Ohio, who had, for several years, been a missionary in China, visited the Library for the purpose of informing the Librarian, that it would give him pleasure to collect and forward, on his return to China, (which he expected to take place in a few months) such books and other objects of interest as would be appropriate for preservation in the Library. His offer was accepted. In September, 1859, a box was received, which contained the Chinese printing apparatus, various specimens of Chinese books, and other curiosities. The expense of over 100 Volumes was $8 20. The cost of the accompanying curiosities was $2 69, and the charges to New York $3 10, which, with the express to Columbus, made the entire expenditure $16 34. A catalogue of the books as well as a list of the curiosities is given in the Appendix.

Valuable accessions were made to the Library the past year, in books and pamphlets, pertaining to the history of our State, its public societies, its politics and literature, and to the customs and habits of the pioneers of the West.

Contributions of historical pamphlets, of society reports, public addresses and discussions, reports of public meetings, etc., are always acceptable, duly acknowledged, and carefully preserved.

Special thanks are due J. J. Barclay Esq., of Philadelphia, for donations of rare pamphlets and scarce reports of the benevolent and other Institutions of Pennsylvania.

Thanks are also due the proprietors of four Daily, two Tri-Weekly and twelve Weekly newspapers, which have been sent free the past year, and, according to law have been preserved and substantially bound. A list is given in the Appendix.

Upon examination of the catalogues of State Libraries in other States, it has been ascertained that from 1854 to 1858, Ohio Documents and Journals were not regularly sent to other States, and thus deficiencies in our sets of the Documents and Journals of the different States are explained. An effort is now being made to supply those deficiencies by exchanging, for missing volumes in our Library, Ohio Laws and Documents, that can now be obtained, which are not in the other Libraries referred to.

A store room, over the Librarian's office, was, a few weeks ago, provided with shelves, by courtesy of the Architect and Commissioners of the State House. There the Laws, Documents and Journals, of Congress, which belong to the Library, are chronologically arranged. The sets are not complete; for some of the earlier years we have no copies of Documents or Journals, while for other years we have several duplicates. Efforts are being made to effect such exchanges as will supply the missing volumes. Members of Congress, from Ohio, may promote this object. Letters, notifying them of our wants, will be sent to them at the opening of the next Congress, in the hope that proper attention will be given to the just claims of the Library in this respect.

Seven sets of Ohio Laws, Documents and Journals, nearly complete, most of which were obtained from the Secretary of State, when the public offices were removed into the State House, in 1857, have been set apart and arranged for Library use, and will be registered when there is shelf room for them in the hall. Only three sets have been registered and are now kept there, because the shelving is not sufficient for more than two-thirds of the volumes which ought to be convenient of access. Four sets of Reports of the different departments are now being collated, and as fast as they can be made complete, will be bound in classified volumes. To be complete, each set must contain all reports, by public officers, from 1836 to 1860—one set, nearly perfect, partly collated, by the Librarian, in 1855, now in use, has been found of peculiar convenience and service.

We would call respectful attention to the resolutions of the Ohio Medical Society, which are published in the Appendix.

We approve the objects presented in those resolutions, and we recognize the propriety and force of an appeal, which has been made to us by a public spirited citizen, for an alcove in the Library which shall be devoted to American History; especially to books relating to the early history and characteristics of the North-West. A liberal appropriation could not be more wisely expended than for books which would make the State Library indispensable to the student of the history of the Mississippi Valley; but the Members of the General Assembly need hardly be reminded of the fact, obvious to all who are acquainted with the Library, that before any expenditures are made for special departments, of whatever description, the permanent alcoves should be constructed.

The Architect and Commissioners of the State House have decided upon a plan, for the finishing of the Hall, which the Library Commissioners approve. It was prepared after a personal examination, by the Architect, of the best libraries in our country, and upon consultation with several of the most experienced librarians in the United States. When that plan has been executed, systems of classification and administration may be perfected which, while they render the Library readily available to all who should be permitted to use the books, will protect it from abuses and depredations to which it must be exposed, so long as the present inadequate and necessarily insecure furniture is used.

We earnestly invite the attention of the General Assembly—

To the necessity for the immediate construction of the permanent alcoves.

To the need of a Finding-Catalogue, "a prime necessity in every Library," which the Ohio State Library has never had.

To the relations of the Law Department, separated as it now is from the General Department—what ought to be the responsibility of its attendant, and his obligations to the Commissioners.

To the question whether a revision of the Library Laws with modification of the privileges is desirable.

Appropriations will be necessary—

For books, magazines, and newspapers;

For binding;

For contingent expenses.

Whether, if it should be determined to finish the Library Hall and order a catalogue, appropriations ought to be made, in 1860, for special departments, the Library Committees will no doubt duly consider.

ADDISON P. RUSSELL, Secretary of State,

[Passed January 27, 1853. 51 vol. Stat. 320—Swan's Statutes, chap. 68 ; page 549.]

SECTION 1. That it shall be the duty of the Governor of this State, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint a State Librarian, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified.

SEC. 2. The Librarian, before he enters upon the discharge of his official duties, shall give a bond in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, with good and sufficient security, to be approved by the Governor, made payable to the State of Ohio, conditioned that he shall faithfully discharge the duties of Librarian, and deliver over to his successor in office all books and other property belonging to the State Library, according to law, and such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the General Assembly.

SEC. 3. That said Librarian shall execute and deliver a receipt to the Treasurer of State, for all books, maps and other property belonging to the State Library, or which may hereafter be purchased for or presented to said Library, specifying in said receipt each book or set of books, map, or article of property separately, which receipt, with the bond given by said Librarian, shall be filed in the Treasurer's office, and the Librarian be held accountable for all said property; and in case of the death, resignation or removal from office of the Librarian, all books, maps and other property belonging to the Library, shall immediately be delivered to his successor in office, taking his receipt for the same, which shall be filed with the State Treasurer, and a credit shall be entered on the receipt of the former Librarian accordingly; but neither the receipt nor the bond of the Librarian shall be given up or cancelled, unless the whole property in his hands shall have been accounted for, according to law, and the rules and regulations for the government of the State Library.

SEC. 4. The Librarian may be removed by Joint Resolution of the General Assembly, for sufficient cause, which shall be specified in said resolution.

SEC. 5. That the resignation of the Librarian shall be made to the Governor, who is hereby authorized to appoint a Librarian in all cases where a vacancy shall happen during the recess of the General Assembly, and the person so appointed shall give the same bond, sign the same receipt, and discharge all the duties appertaining to said office in the same manner as though he had been appointed according to the provisions of the first section of this act, and he shall hold his office until the next session of the General Assembly, and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified.

SEC. 6. That the State Library shall be under the management of a Board of Commissioners, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State, and State Librarian.

SEC. 7. That the Commissioners of the Library shall have power to adopt any rules and regulations proper or necessary for the preservation, regulation and increase of the Library, not inconsistent with law, which the Librarian shall in all things observe, and to superintend and direct all expenditures of appropriations made for the Library.

SEC. 8. That the said Board of Commissioners shall control the sale of the reports of the Supreme Court, and all extra copies of statistics and other documents not otherwise appropriated or otherwise advisable to be preserved and kept in the Library, and for the purpose of making such sale, the Commissioners may appoint a suitable person upon such terms as they shall deem best, from whom they shall take a bond with satisfactory surety, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty, and paying over the proceeds of the sales by him [made,] and the Commissioners shall apply the proceeds of such sales to the increase and preservation of the Library.

SEC. 9. The Commissioners shall direct the Librarian to exchange statutes, journals, legislative documents and other books, with other legislative bodies and Libraries, as they shall deem proper.

SEC. 10. All persons shall be permitted to visit the Library and examine and read the books there, without taking the same therefrom, under such regulations as the Board of Commissioners may prescribe. Members and ex-members of the General Assembly, Judges of the Supreme Court, and Court of Common Pleas, officers of State and their clerks actually engaged in the service of the State, and clerks and sergeants-at-arms of the General Assembly, shall have free access to the use of the books of the Library, and have the liberty of taking the same out under such regulations as the Commissioners may determine; but no public officer or other person having a right to take books out of the Library, shall have the authority to give any other person an order to take books out of the same; and if any person having such right shall give such order, or otherwise obtain books out of the Library to be used by any other person not having such right, such person shall thereupon forfeit all right to take books therefrom.

SEC. 11. That the commissioners of the State Library shall, five days preceding the commencement of each regular session of the General Assembly, make a report to the Governor, of all receipts and expenditures, and of the condition of the library, and all other matters in relation thereto, that they may deem expedient for the information of the General Assembly; and said report shall be communicated by the Governor to the General Assembly, along with the reports of the executive departments and State Institutions.

SEC. 12. [Repeals acts passed Jan. 20, 1824, and March 6, 1845.]

An Act to require the preservation of Newspapers, Periodicals and Pamphlets, in the State Library.

[Passed April 25, 1854. 52 vol. Stat 54.]

SEC. 1. That it shall be the duty of the State Librarian, annually, to cause to be bound in substantial manner, all newspapers, periodicals and pamphlets, that may be received, or deposited in the State Library. So far as practicable, the consecutive numbers of each newspaper, or periodical received at, or furnished to the library, shall be bound together, but two or more newspapers or periodicals may be bound in the same volume, and the volumes shall be bound up in such convenient size, as the Librarian shall prescribe. All pamphlets received at, or furnished to the library, shall be classified and bound in such order as the Librarian shall prescribe. The expenses arising under this act shall be audited, and paid out of any money appropriated for the State Library. All newspapers, periodicals and pamphlets, received at, or furnished to the State Library, and all volumes bound as herein required, shall be carefully kept in the State Library.
