TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT

COMMISSIONERS

OHIO STATE LIBRARY

THE YEAR 1890

COLUMBUS
COLUMBIAN PRINTING COMPANY, STATE PRINTERS
1890

RULES OF THE STATE LIBRARY.

HOURS.

The Ohio State Library is open every day, except Sunday, and the usual holidays.

During the session of the Legislature, from 9 o'clock A. M. till 12 M.; from 2 to 5 P. M.: and from 7 to 9 P. M.

After the adjournment of the Legislature, from 9 A. M. till 12 M.; and from 2 to 5 P. M.

REGULATIONS.

All persons are permitted to visit the Library, and examine and read the books and magazines.

Those who are entitled to take out books, are—

By Law :

Members and officers, and ex-Members of the Legislature.

State Officers and Clerks in the several Departments.

The Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Common Pleas.

Superintendents in the Benevolent and other State Institutions.

By Resolution :

Resident Ministers of the city of Columbus have, by a resolution of the General Assembly, free use of the Library, in accordance with the rules, who are at the time Pastors of congregations, and who apply in person for books for their own especial use.

RESTRICTIONS.

Not more than two books can be taken by any person at one time, within two weeks.

Books must be returned within two weeks.

Books of reference, and other books of peculiar value, are kept from circulation.

A public officer, or any other person having a right to take out books, who gives any other individual an order for books, or who obtains books to be used by another not having such right, thereupon forfeits his own right to draw books.

Books lost or damaged must be replaced or paid for.

Copying from Library books must be done with a pencil.

Loud talking forbidden.

Smoking prohibited.

To the General Assembly of Ohio :

The Commissioners of the State Library have the honor to submit the following report for the year ending the 15th of November, 1869 :

It has heretofore been the practice to make the annual statement of books on hand from the record of the Librarian, but owing to the fact that a large number of books were clandestinely carried away during last winter, this report of the number on hand is made from actual examination. By counting the books on hand, and comparing the number with the record kept, there was found to be a deficiency of 142 volumes of Reports, besides six volumes of Gholson and Okey's Digest of Reports and four volumes of Swan and Sayler's Revised Statutes. The Librarian succeeded in recovering 24 volumes of Reports, and two volumes each of Gholson and Okey and Swan and Sayler, and one copy, 2 vols., Swan and Critchfield.

Your attention is called to the necessity of having the gallery of the Library room finished to correspond with the cases on the first floor, which are now so crowded that some works have to be put out of their proper places. We suggest that your honorable body make the necessary appropriations for this purpose.

R. B. HAYES, Governor,
ISAAC R. SHERWOOD, Secretary of State,
S. G. HARBAUGH, Librarian,

Commissioners of the State Library.

DECEMBER 1, 1869.
