TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

COMMISSIONERS

OF THE

OHIO STATE LIBRARY

AND

THE YEAR 1866

COLUMBUS:

GORMLEY & COMPANY, PRINTERS

1866

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of the State of Ohio :

At the last session inquiry was made of the Librarian respecting the use of books from the Library by several persons not entitled by law to the privilege of taking volumes out, and being admonished to be very careful in that respect, the Librarian felt it his duty to act advisedly in regard to the whole matter of privilege as contained in the law of 1853, for the "re-organization of the State Library," (S. & C., Vol. 1, Sec. 10, page 832), which is as follows :

"All persons shall be permitted to visit the Library, and examine and read the books there, without taking the same therefrom, under such regulations as the Board of Commissioners shall prescribe. Members and ex-members of the General Assembly, judges of the Supreme Court, and Court of Common Pleas, officers of State and their clerks actually engaged in the service of the State, and clerks and sergeants-at-arms of the General Assembly shall have free access to the use of the books of the Library, and have the liberty of taking the same out under such regulations as the Commissioners may determine; but no public officer or other person having a right to take books out of the Library, shall have the authority to give any other person an order to take books out of the same; and if any person having such a right shall give such an order, or otherwise obtain books out of the Library to be used by any other person not having such right, such person shall thereupon forfeit all right to take books therefrom."

The following "regulations" have been printed with the Annual Reports of the Library ever since 1858, as "the rules of the Library," about four years before the present Librarian received his appointment, and not having any reason to doubt their propriety, he felt justified by the precedent to continue them as correct until his attention was called to the subject, when it appeared some were enjoying a privilege not contained in the law, and the rules as printed in the reports did not all conform to the law :

REGULATIONS.

All persons are permitted to visit the Library, and examine and read the books and magazines.

Those who are entitled to take out books, are—

By Law :

Members and officers, and ex-Members of the Legislature.

State Officers and Clerks in the several Departments.

The Judges of the Supreme Court, and Courts of Common Pleas.

Superintendents and Teachers in the Benevolent and other State Institutions.

By Resolution :

Resident Ministers of the city of Columbus, have, by a resolution of the General Assembly, free use of the Library, in accordance with the rules.

RESTRICTIONS.

Not more than two books can be taken by any person at one time, within two weeks.

Books must be returned within two weeks.

Books of reference, and other books of peculiar value, are kept from circulation.

A public officer, or any other person having a right to take out books, who gives any other individual an order for books, or who obtains books to be used by another not having such right, thereupon forfeits his own right to draw books.

Books lost or damaged must be replaced or paid for.

Copying from Library books must be done with a pencil.

Loud talking forbidden.

Smoking prohibited.

As the law does not specify who are "State officers," a difference of opinion existed as to who were to be considered State officers, and entitled to the privileges of the above section, the Librarian concluded the better way to settle the question and determine his conduct in the matter would be to submit it for the opinion and advice of Mr. Attorney General West, which was accordingly done. The correspondence on the subject is given:

LIBRARY ROOMS, March 1, 1868.

Mr. Attorney General West :

Objections have been made by some members of the Legislature to my permitting persons to have the privilege of taking books out of the Library who hold their office by appointment from the Governor, as a violation of the law which gives this privilege to "State officers."

Will you please give me your written opinion as Attorney General of Ohio, whether the terms "Officers of State," or "State officers" can be properly construed to mean and apply to those who have been appointed to office by the Governor, and entitle them to this privilege,—or whether "State officers" are those only who have been elected by the voice of the people? I have been advised to ask this information, and to act accordingly.

Respectfully yours,

S. G. HARBAUGH,
Librarian.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
COLUMBUS, O., March 23, 1868.

S. G. Harbaugh, Esq., State Librarian :

DEAR SIR:—Your letter asking who are "State officers," within the meaning of the act to reorganize the State Library (1 S. & C. 832, Sec. 10), is received. In reply I have the honor to state:

The several officers who are elected by the State at large. The several officers appointed by the Governor, to wit: R. R. Commissioner, Gas Commissioner, Adjutant General, Quarter-master General, Supervisor of Printing, State House Commissioner, and State Librarian; also, the Trustees of the several Benevolent Institutions of the State and of the Penitentiary (Const. Art. VII.), these being State institutions, &c.

I doubt if there be any others, unless the Superintendents of the Benevolent Institutions and the Warden of the Penitentiary be State officers. Whether they are "officers" in the sense of the statute, or only "employees," is a matter of which I am not sure. It would seem that, under the statutes punishing embezzlements, these persons would be held to be "State officers," and liable as such. I therefore will so hold them to be State officers, until the Legislature shall more clearly indicate its meaning. I cannot now recall any other person, or class of persons, entitled to the designation.

First, then. The elective officers of the State.

Second. The officers appointed by the Governor as officers for the whole State.

Third. Trustees and Superintendents of the State Benevolent Institutions.

Fourth. Trustees and Warden of Penitentiary.

Yours, &c.,

W. H. WEST,
Attorney General.

Another letter from Mr. West is given, in answer to an inquiry by the Librarian :

OHIO STATE LIBRARY, June 5, 1868.

HON. W. H. WEST, Attorney General of the State of Ohio.

SIR:—Having been cautioned not to allow books to be taken from the Library by any person who has not a legal right to do so, I can find no act or resolution which gives to the teachers in the benevolent institutions this privilege, which they had before I came into office, and by this precedent have enjoyed ever since. I wish, in view of its being unauthorized by the Legislature, to ask you whether it is not my duty to deny the teachers in these institutions the privilege of using any of the library books outside of this room. Please give me your opinion as soon as you can, by which I shall be governed.

Yours, &c.,

S. G. HARBAUGH, Librarian.

OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL, June 25, 1868.

S. G. HARBAUGH, Esq.

DEAR SIR:—I cannot find that teachers of benevolent institutions are authorized to take books from the State Library. They are neither officers of the State, nor their clerks.

Yours, &c.,

W. H. WEST, Attorney General.

In consequence of the want of clearness as to who were to be regarded as State officers, the Librarian was often at a loss to know whether by giving or refusing he was doing right. The Commissioners would respectfully suggest to your honorable body to pass an act that would define most clearly who, in office, or in the employment of the State, shall be allowed such privilege as is intended by the section referred to, but not sufficiently explicit to prevent misunderstanding.

The Librarian was obliged to refuse the teachers of the institutions the privilege of taking books from the Library, as it is evident there was no such right in the law, and also to deny the clergy the same privilege for want of a resolution which had been given every year since 1858 to 1866 inclusive, but was not adopted in 1867 and 1868. It is eminently proper, we conceive, to renew this privilege to the clergy who devotes the time required to officiate as chaplains.

The following pages present the operations of both departments of the Library for 1868, giving a list of all the additions of volumes by their titles, whether purchased or received in exchange, or by donation. In the list of books purchased, will be found a considerable number of works on the history of, or in some way relating to the United States, in whole or some of the States individually. Some attention having been paid to this object, it is hoped that the addition of a number of rare works on this subject will be found valuable. The general purchases have been confined almost exclusively to books of permanent use and value. The works imported were obtained free from the charge of duty which had not been the case heretofore. The new safeguard of keeping the books locked up in the cases, has been found to answer every desirable end in securing them from pilfering, and misplacing and dust. The cases have been all numbered, and it is hoped when time permits a more complete classification, and assigning the classes to departments where they should remain permanently, that the money expended in furnishing the State of Ohio with one of the handsomest library rooms in the country, will be still more favorably acknowledged.

The above remarks, with the report of the librarian, are most respectfully submitted.

R. B. HAYES, Governor,

JOHN RUSSELL, Secretary of State,

S. G. HARBAUGH, Librarian,

Commissioners of the Ohio State Library.

Nov. 15, 1868. Balance in hands of the Librarian from sales of duplicate volumes and old book cases..... $184

As this balance, of $184.19 in the hands of the Librarian, accrues from the sale of duplicate volumes, as authorized by resolution of the Legislature, several years ago, and the sale of old book cases laid aside in the new arrangement of the Library, the Commissioners propose expending it in the purchase of books and other uses for the Library, and report the same at the next session of the Legislature.

INTER-CHANGE.

The system of mutual exchange with the Libraries of other States is promptly attended to on our part, but not so fully reciprocated by a number of the States. The number of bound volumes furnished in this way, but omitted in the report of 1867, was 650, and unbound or sewed, official reports, 691; making together for 1867, 1341 copies. In the exchanges of this year, (1868,) we report 507 bound and 655 unbound documents, 1162 to fifty-three State Libraries and Literary Institutions.

CONTINGENT EXPENSES.
