

TWENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

COMMISSIONERS

OF THE

OHIO STATE LIBRARY,

FOR THE YEAR 1873.

COLUMBUS:
NEVINS & MYERS, STATE PRINTERS,
1874.

RULES OF THE STATE LIBRARY.

HOURS.

The Ohio State Library is open every day, except Sunday and the usual holidays.

During the session of the Legislature, from 9 o'clock A.M. till 12 M.; from 2 to 5 P.M.; and from 7 to 9 P.M.

After the adjournment of the Legislature, from 9 A.M. till 12 M.; and from 2 to 5 P.M.

REGULATIONS.

All persons are permitted to visit the Library, and examine and read the books and magazines.

Those who are entitled to take out books are—

By Law :

Members and officers and ex-members of the Legislature.

State officers and clerks in the several departments.

The Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Common Pleas.

Superintendents in the benevolent and other State institutions.

By Resolution :

Resident ministers of the city of Columbus have, by a resolution of the General Assembly, free use of the Library, in accordance with the rules, who are at the time pastors of congregations, and who apply in person for books for their own special use.

The privilege of drawing books from the Library is also extended to the officers and teachers in the benevolent institutions of the State; officers and teachers of the Ohio Agricultural College; officers of the Ohio Penitentiary; ex-officers of the State; ex-officers of the General Assembly, and to the widows of deceased ex-members of the General Assembly and ex-State officers.

RESTRICTIONS.

Not more than two books can be taken by any person at one time within two weeks.

Books must be returned within two weeks.

Books of references, and other books of peculiar value, are kept from circulation.

A public officer, or any other person having a right to take out books, who gives any other individual an order for books to be used by another not having such right, thereupon forfeits his own right to draw books.

Books lost or damaged must be replaced or paid for.

Copying from Library books must be done with pencil.

Loud talking forbidden.

Smoking prohibited.

To the General Assembly of Ohio :

The improvement in the Library room, for which an appropriation of twelve thousand dollars was made at your last session, has just been completed to the entire satisfaction of the Commissioners, and we confidently hope the work will commend itself to your approval. The very best material of every description has been used, and all the work has been done in accordance with the contract, in the best style. We are gratified in reporting that the cost has been much less than we expected, the particulars of which are stated in the present report, and a balance unexpended of two thousand nine hundred and sixty-four dollars and eight-five cents remains in the treasury. The Commissioners did not feel justified in using any portion of this fund for the improvement of the sky-light, as the resolution was specific as to its purpose, but we would recommend that authority be given to use this balance, or as much as may be needed, in enlarging the sky-light, in covering the floor with a carpet to correspond in quality with the general appearance of the room, in cleaning and painting the ceiling and west side of the room, and in supplying needed furniture.

It is estimated that the alcoves on the new galleries will contain about twenty-five thousand volumes, and give ample space for some years to come for such valuable books as may be purchased.

The crowded shelves of the first floor will be greatly relieved by transferring a large portion of their contents to the galleries above, and this will require almost an entirely new arrangement of all the books.

As abundant shelf room has now been obtained, there will be nothing in the way of commencing a catalogue of all the bound volumes of the State Library, and their proper classification and arrangement in the alcoves. This will require the aid of some one accustomed to this peculiar work, in order that it may conform to the latest methods of cataloguing large libraries.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

EDWARD F. NOYES, Governor,
A. T. WIKOFF, Secretary of State,
S. G. HARBAUGH, Librarian,

Commissioners of the State Library.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, December 1, 1873.
