OHIO STATE LIBRARY RULES AND RESTRICTIONS.

HOURS.

The Ohio State Library is open every day, except Sunday and the usual holidays. During the session of the Legislature, from nine o'clock A.M. till twelve M.; from two P.M. to five P.M.; and from seven P.M. to nine P.M.

After the adjournment of the Legislature, from nine A.M. till twelve M., and from two to five P.M.

REGULATIONS.

All persons are permitted to visit the Library and examine and read the books and magazines.

Those who are entitled to take out books are—

By law :

Members and officers and ex-members of the Legislature;
State officers and clerks in the several departments;
The Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Common Pleas;
Superintendents in the benevolent and other State institutions.

By resolution :

Resident ministers in the city of Columbus have, by a resolution of the General Assembly, free use of the Library, in accordance with the rules, who are at the time pastors of congregations, and who apply in person for books for their own special use.

The privilege of drawing books from the Library is also extended to the officers and teachers in the benevolent institutions of the State; officers and teachers of the Ohio Agricultural College; officers of the Ohio Penitentiary; ex-officers of the State; ex-officers of the General Assembly, and to the widows of deceased ex-members of the General Assembly and ex-State officers.

RESTRICTIONS.

1. Not more than two books can be taken from the Library by the same person at the same time, and no additional books must be taken out until they are returned.

2. All books taken from the Library must be returned within two weeks, and the same books can not be taken out again by the same party until the expiration of two days thereafter.

3. All books of reference, and others of rare and peculiar value, are not intended for circulation, but must be consulted in the Library.

4. Valuable illustrated works must not be taken out, used, nor handled for mere amusement.

5. No person is allowed to take any book from the alcove, nor from the tables, without permission, and no book can be taken from the Library without a memorandum thereof upon the record by the Librarian or Assistant.

6. Any person returning books to the Library must report the same to the Librarian or Assistant, who will cancel them upon the record.

7. All persons who lose, or permit books to be damaged while in their possession, must pay for or replace them.

8. All copying from books in the Library must be done with pencil; leaves must not be turned down, and no marks of any kind made on the margins.

9. Any person having the legal right to take books from the Library, who shall give an order for, or furnish books to any other person not having such right, to be used by such other person, shall thereby forfeit his or her own privileges.

10. Members and officers of the General Assembly shall return all books in their possession four days before the adjournment of the session; and it shall be the duty of the Librarian to report to the Senate or House of Representatives, the names of any officers or members who shall fail to comply with the foregoing requirement.

11. Loud talking and smoking strictly forbidden.

LIBRARY COMMISSIONERS' REPORT—1881.

To the General Assembly of Ohio:

The Commissioners of the Library are required to report to the Legislature, a statement of accounts, and to make such suggestions as they may deem fit.

The accounts, purchases and expenditures are herewith given. The deficit of one-hundred and nine dollars and twenty-five cents, which is mentioned in the estimate for the year, occurred during the administration of Henry V. Kerr, Librarian. The delay of business consequent upon his decease, prevented the presentation of the account prior to the partial appropriation bill. The claim is regarded as just, the volumes having been already in use.

The attention of the Legislature is respectfully called to the condition of the Library Room. The Senate Chamber, House of Representatives and Supreme Court Room have been renovated and beautified. The only room of particular significance on the second floor of the Capitol building which has not been enlivened in appearance, is the Library. We simply call your attention to it. Its sky-light bedimmed, walls dark and alcoves gloomy, and ventilation bad. We desire and ask for an appropriation of fifteen hundred dollars, to enliven our walls, brighten our ceilings, clean up and make attractive the room generally, so as to give a cheerful instead of gloomy appearance.

We also recommend the purchasing and putting up of an Electric Battery to instantaneously light and extinguish the gas jets; the cost of which will be between two and three hundred dollars. If to be available this winter, an immediate action is necessary.

The selection of such books as should be purchased is a matter of moment. In order to properly choose, the Librarian, upon consultation with the Commissioners, corresponded with different gentlemen of erudition, and received from them suggestions. After obtaining various lists, he consulted with Hon. John W. Andrews, Professor John T. Short, and his co-adjutors, Governor Foster and Secretary of State Townsend and his Assistant, and they in view thereof, corresponded with the recommendations generally, and acted on conjoint judgment. The selection of books was made without favoritism in any manner or form. After we determined on the volumes we desired to purchase, we wrote to different publishers and booksellers to ascertain at what price the books chosen by us could be purchased. Robert Clarke & Co. were the lowest bidders, and from them we bought generally.

A great many old, obsolete, uninteresting volumes lumber the Library shelves, that are never called for. They are simply incumbrances. We have duplicates and triplicates of material that interest nobody and we ask the privilege to sell what, in our judgment, occupies space that can be more sensibly used, and to apply the result of the sale for the benefit of the Library.

There are now over eight thousand volumes in the Library not contained in the published catalogue. The Librarian believes that he has authority under the Law to issue a supplemental catalogue, and for the benefit of the public he will so do, unless interdicted by the Legislature.

The last Legislature very properly, in our judgment, increased the salary of Miss Mary Harbaugh, from one thousand to twelve hundred dollars, but failed to make an appropriation to meet the obligation to her, and we ask respectfully that provisions be made in this case. The Librarian certifies to her fidelity, courtesy and promptness as Assistant Librarian and has in her official capacity and experience the utmost confidence.

The St. Clair papers will, we expect, under contract, be soon ready for delivery to this Legislature. The publication of them was given to Robert Clarke & Co., of Cincinnati, they being the lowest bidders, contracting to do the work for $2,250.00, and furnishing five hundred copies to the State free of charge. The editing of them was assigned to Hon. William Henry Smith (ex-Secretary of State, and now collector of the Chicago Port), because he was capable, and on account of his long, patient and able investigations of the subject, and because he had papers of importance and interest in his hands which no other one possessed, or could without great trouble or expense obtain, he was better qualified to give a history of that man, and the great North-west during St. Clair's career than any person we knew. From the examination thus far of the work, we believe that it will gratify every student of American History, and perpetuate the name of the author, as a grand illustrator of the merits of a man who has been so frequently denounced. The editing of the book was done by Mr. Smith without charge, and he is entitled to the thanks of the people of the State.

CHARLES TOWNSEND, Secretary of State.

JOS. H. GEIGER, State Librarian.
