REPORT OF BOARD OF LIBRARY COMMISSIONERS.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, November 15, 1900.

To His Excellency, George K. Nash, Governor of Ohio:

SIR: We have the honor to herewith submit the fifty-fifth annual report of the Board of Library Commissioners, being the fifth report since the creation of the present Commission by act of April 22, 1896.

The report of the librarian which follows gives in detail the work of the library during the past year and shows the growth of the collection which now numbers 68,750 volumes. Statistics of circulation in the traveling library department show a very substantial increase over that of any former year, emphasizing again the importance of this feature of the work of the library to the people of the state. Many small communities, and even larger towns, are still without any library facilities and are compelled to depend upon the State Library for books. These have been served (whenever the request was properly made) by one or more traveling libraries and the demand for books has at times taxed the ability and skill of the librarian and his assistants.

A serious drawback to the work has been lack of room in which to properly handle the work of this department. The difficulty will be partially solved when the library can occupy the room to be vacated by the removal of the office of the Commissioner of Labor to new quarters in the Annex. This room will be available early in the coming year. The relief afforded by this additional room is, of course, but temporary, and does not provide for the growth of the library proper. The last report of the librarian called attention to the pressing need for more room for the general library, which, with the ordinary accessions, is becoming a serious matter. Much of the valuable property of the State which it has required years to collect, and which could not now be duplicated, is in danger of loss and damage and is not properly available. The only solution in view of the impossibility of securing additional room in the capitol building, is a library building. If the State Library is to perform its proper function and keep step with similar institutions in older, and even in some of the newer western states, such a building becomes an absolute necessity, and it is hoped that the legislature may make a start in this direction.

The Commission, in its last report, recommended the publication in book form of statistics and other information showing the condition of the libraries of the state to the close of the year 1900. A resolution was passed by the legislature authorizing the printing of fifteen hundred copies of such report, but no appropriation was made for the same or for the cost of compilation. The state librarian has, however, undertaken the work which will soon be ready for the press, and we believe will greatly aid library extension throughout the state. Its publication should be continued from time to time and proper appropriations made therefor.

J. F. MCGREW, President,
O. E. NILES,
CHAS. ORR.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, November 15, 1900.

To the Board of Library Commissioners:

GENTLEMEN: Since the date of my last annual report there have been added

To the Traveling Library Department.....	4,642 volumes
To the General Library Department.....	2,167 volumes
Total	6,809 volumes

The number of volumes in the library according to my last report, less pamphlets unbound and duplicate government publications, was 61,965. If to this be added the books registered within the past year, we have a total of 68,774 volumes. Twelve of these have been transferred to the law library; twelve have been worn out or lost. The balance, 68,750 should now be in the library. An actual count of the books shows a slight excess, due in part to books that have been returned to the library since the count was made four years ago.

Among the additions to which special attention is called are the following:

NEWSPAPERS.

Delaware, O.: Delaware Patron, Ohio State Gazette, Ohio Gazette, Olentangy Gazette, 1823-1838, bound in eight volumes. Harrison Flag, 1840, 1 volume.

Worthington and Columbus, O.: The Western Intelligencer (odd numbers), 1813-1815.

Chillicothe, O.: The Supporter, December 8, 1808,-September 26, 1815; October 29, 1816,-November 22, 1820. The Supporter and Scioto Gazette, July 26, 1823,-October 27, 1825.

Portsmouth, O.: Temporary Advertiser, February 24, 1826-April 6, 1826, continued as Western Times, April 18, 1826-November 11, 1830. Portsmouth Gazette, August 5, 1818-March 17, 1819. Scioto Telegraph, March 4, 1820-September 28, 1820. Scioto Telegraph and Lawrence Gazette, October 5, 1820-September 1, 1821. Portsmouth Gazette and Lawrence Advertiser, July 30, 1824-October 28, 1825. Portsmouth Courier, January 1, 1831-February 21, 1832.

Steubenville, O.: Western Herald and Steubenville Gazette, February 7, 1817-November 11, 1820.

Georgetown, O.: Western Aegis, June 20, 1827-April 8, 1828, continued as Western Aegis and Public Advertiser, May 20, 1828-February 2, 1829.

Columbus, O.: Ohio State Journal, Sept. 22, 1825-March 4, 1830.

Jeffersonville, Ind.: The Indianian, Nov. 13, 1819-June 8, 1820.

Oxford, N. Y.: Oxford Gazette, August 11, 1818-February 16, 1820.

Among the periodicals that were added too late to be included in this year's report is a set of Dennie's Portfolio, 1801-1820, containing the rare engravings of this early American literary periodical, also a complete file of the United States Literary Gazette, containing a number of the early poems originally contributed by Longfellow and Bryant, 1825-1826; the first volume of the United States Review and Literary Gazette, edited by William Cullen Bryant. The library has received some important gifts. Mr. James Brown, editor of the Columbus Record, kindly presented a file of that paper, 1879-1894, 17 volumes.

A large and valuable collection, chiefly of Ohio newspapers, was presented by the heirs of the late John D. Wright, of Chester Hill, Ohio. They are now in the hands of the state binder and comprise the following:

National Historian, February 3, 1827-December 15, 1833.

Belmont Chronicle, January 7, 1837-October 20, 1863.

Belmont Farmer, June, 1847-June, 1848.

American Messenger and Alexander's Messenger, May 10, 1837-December 31, 1839.

Ohio State Journal and Columbus Gazette, Sept. 1835-April, 1837.

Pittsburg Weekly Gazette, November 10, 1853-January 4, 1855.

New York Weekly Tribune, February 10, 1849-June 28, 1851.

Emigrant and Old Countryman, January 20, 1836-December 31, 1837; January 1, 1841-February 28, 1842; January 1, 1843-November 8, 1843.

Rural New Yorker, January-December, 1862.

Volume of miscellaneous papers, various dates, 1823-1861.

Volume of miscellaneous Anti-Slavery papers, 1836-1845.

Miscellaneous papers from other states, 1823-1862.

St Clairsville Gazette, September 17, 1825-July 4, 1829.

Many of the miscellaneous papers are valuable because of special articles marked in the different copies.

For the gift of this collection the State Library is under especial obligations to Prof. W. T. Morrey, of New York City, and Isaac A. Wright, of Kansas City, Mo.

It will be seen that substantial progress has been made in collecting Ohio newspaper literature. Much more may be accomplished in this line by persistent and well directed effort. It should be the especial function of the State Library to collect such material.

A catalogue of the newspapers on file in the State Library and other libraries of the State, and of the Ohio newspapers in the Library of Congress, will be found in the appendix to this report.

A map of Ohio, by John F. Mansfield, 1806, and three volumes of the Marietta College Magazine, 1854-1857, are among the other noteworthy additions to the department of Ohio history.

TRAVELING LIBRARIES.

The demand for traveling libraries increases steadily. The growth is best shown by the following statistics:

Traveling libraries sent out

Prior to November 15, 1896, 2 libraries.....	50 volumes
November 15, 1896, to November 15, 1897, 62 libraries.	1,331 "
November 15, 1897, to November 15, 1898, 379 libraries	9,887 "
November 15, 1898, to November 15, 1899, 445 libraries	12,812 "
November 15, 1899, to November 15, 1900, 711 libraries	19,505 "

Traveling libraries issued from the Ohio State Library November 15, 1899, to November 15, 1900, have been distributed as follows:

To schools	252
To independent study clubs.....	179
To women's clubs	125
To religious organizations	50
To Granges	95
To libraries	10
Total	711

Not only has the traveling library been popular within the State, but correspondence in this office shows that what has been done in Ohio has attracted attention and favorable comment in other states. Renewed interest has been manifested in the county library system and the establishment of local traveling libraries with the county seat as a center of distribution.

The interest manifested in library extension throughout the State indicates accelerated growth and rapidly increasing demand for the help that, under the existing law, the State stands pledged to give. To meet this reasonable demand and properly to provide for this important educational work, more room for the State Library is absolutely necessary. The additional space assigned by the legislature, when available, will afford only slight temporary relief. Adequate provision must be made for the future or the State Library must soon cease to grow.

Very respectfully,

C. B. GALBREATH, State Librarian.

LIST OF NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS

IN

OHIO STATE LIBRARY, OTHER LIBRARIES OF THE STATE, AND LIST OF OHIO NEWSPAPERS IN THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS.

NEWSPAPER AND PERIODICAL BULLETIN.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

On the following pages will be found lists of newspapers and periodicals in the Ohio State Library, other libraries of the state, and a list of Ohio newspapers in the Library of Congress. With each of these credit is given to the librarian or attendant under whose direction it was prepared.

This appendix to my annual report does not pretend to be an annotated catalogue. The means at the disposal of the State Library would not at present permit such an undertaking. Limited space has made it absolutely necessary to compress the material, stripped of all details, into the narrowest possible compass.

Those interested in Ohio newspaper literature should remember that since March, 1850, county auditors have been required to keep in their offices bound volumes of leading papers, of opposite political parties, published in their respective counties. No report has been received at this office in regard to the files kept in accordance with this law. It is believed, however, that they are in fairly good condition. The law itself is an excellent one. Faithfully carried out, it will insure the preservation of much local history.

In conclusion, I thank most heartily those who aided in the compilation of this work. Without their assistance, freely given, this publication, of course, would have been impossible.

C. B. GALBREATH,
State Librarian.
